On July 31, 2020 Mr. Paul Kirby will be released from the custody of the Vermont Department of Corrections and will be under the supervision of Burlington Probation and Parole. Most recently, Mr. Kirby has served a term of incarceration related to a 2007 Possession of Child Pornography conviction. At this time, it is anticipated that Mr. Kirby will be living in South Burlington upon his release.

Officials with the Vermont Department of Corrections indicate Mr. Kirby is considered treatment non-compliant. Compared to other incarcerated offenders, Mr. Kirby's risk of sexual recidivism is in the high-risk category. His risk of general criminal recidivism is in the low category. In 2003, Mr. Kirby was convicted of Sexual Assault of a Minor. Based on his history, if he were to sexually re-offend his victim would likely be minor females.

If you or someone you know has been a victim of sexual assault, there is support available. Even if the assault did not happen recently, there are resources to help you decide what is best for you, including free medical treatment, advocacy, and support. You do not have to go through this alone. There is a whole community ready to support you.
