NARRATIVE:

At approximately 0259 hours on Wednesday November 11, Burlington Police Dispatch received a call from a man stating he had been shot. Officers responded to the vicinity of King Street and Pine Street, and, along with members of the Burlington Fire Department, treated the victim. He was transported to the University of Vermont Medical Center where he is currently in stable condition.

Assisted by mutual aid from the University of Vermont Police Department, officers secured the scene on King Street and then followed a blood trail to 185 Pine Street, where they established a crime scene and safeguarded associated evidence. Detectives assigned to the Burlington Police Department's arrived and began an investigation. That process is in the very early stages.

Anyone with information about this incident is asked to contact the Burlington Police Department at (802) 658-2704.

Information is preliminary and subject to change.
