NARRATIVE:

THIS IS A FOLLOW-UP TO A PREVIOUS BPD PRESS RELEASE FROM SATURDAY JUNE 5, 2021.

On Saturday, June 5, 2021, at approximately 0245 hours, there was a shooting in City Hall Park. After bar closing, two men became engaged in an altercation in the vicinity of Church Street and Main Street. The altercation continued at the southeast entrance to City Hall Park, where one man produced a firearm and discharged what appears to be a single round at the second man. An uninvolved, innocent bystander in the vicinity of Church Street and Main Street was struck by the round. The Burlington Police Department (BPD) is seeking information about the incident.

Detectives have interviewed witnesses and collected quantities of evidence, including video footage from private and public cameras in the vicinity of the incident. They have identified the person struck by the gunfire, the person at whom the suspected shooter allegedly fired, and others who were in the vicinity. The BPD is seeking to identify the suspected shooter. Previously, the department shared video of the incident. We are now sharing photos of the suspect, below.

The BPD only releases photos of missing persons or persons who are being actively sought for alleged crimes.

Information is preliminary and subject to change.
