NARRATIVE:

At approximately 1535 hours the Burlington Police Department received several 911 calls about a disturbance at the corner of Cherry Street and Pine Street. Upon arrival officers learned that there had been an altercation between two males and a large crowd had gathered to watch. One male remained on scene but was uncooperative with Police and refused to give any information. Officers requested Burlington Fire Department EMT's to speak with the male and see if he required medical attention as he would not tell officers if he was injured or not. Officer are currently investigating the whereabouts of the second male involved in the altercation. We will update this media release as more information becomes available.

This is preliminary information and is subject to change.
