NARRATIVE:

On 14 May 2022 at approximately 1518 hours, Burlington Police received a 911 call about an individual operating a blue minivan displaying a firearm out of the driver's window and firing two rounds in the air.

Officers responded and recovered ballistic evidence consistent with a firearm discharge. Preliminary information revealed the operator of the blue minivan was identified as Sheirdan Durochia, age 25, of Hinesburg, VT. A short time later, Williston Police Department received a motor vehicle complaint, which was determined to be the suspect vehicle in the gunfire incident. Burlington Officer responded to scene in Williston where Mr. Durochia's vehicle was seized as evidence, pending a search warrant. Williston Police took Mr. Durochia into custody for suspicion of driving under the influence of alcohol.

Mr. Durochia was issued a citation to appear in Vermont Superior Court on June 2, 2022 at 0830 to answer to the criminal offense of Reckless Endangerment and DUI.

This is currently an ongoing investigation. This is the seventh (7th) gunfire incident in 2022.
