NARRATIVE:

06/07/2022

On 05/05/2022 female residents of the Burlington Hillside neighborhood briefly left for the morning and returned to find that a person had climbed in their bedroom window and taken many items, including electronics, passports, checkbooks, and much of their wardrobes.

On 05/06/2022 one of the victim’s stolen checks had been fraudulently used at a bank in Winooski, VT. A male suspect entered the bank and attempted to cash this check. There was also a female associated with that male and the white van they came and left in.

As the suspects drove away from the bank, a passerby noticed them driving his stolen van and began to follow them. A female in the van pointed a handgun at this person and they also crashed this victim’s stolen van into the vehicle the victim was driving as he followed them. The stolen van was later recovered at the scene of another vehicle theft that had occurred in Shelburne, VT.

Video stills are now available of the male suspect for the check fraud and gun threatening incident, please find them attached. As you can see, the suspect appears to have a cast on his right wrist, and many distinct tattoos on his body.

Information is preliminary and subject to change.
