NARRATIVE:

On 09 June 2022, at approximately 1928 hours, The Burlington Police Department was notified by Winooski Police Department that Officers had located a stolen vehicle that was reported stolen out of Burlington. The recovered vehicle was one of three vehicles stolen off a dealership's parking lot after the business was burglarized in the early morning of 09 June 2022.

Preliminary investigation revealed that Winooski PD responded to Weaver St for a male passed out behind the wheel. The male was identified as Marlon Taylor, age 28. Taylor was taken into custody for Aggravated Operations without Owner's Consent, Grand Larceny, Violation of Court Conditions (2 counts), and Driving while License Suspended-Criminally. Taylor has been arrested in five stolen vehicle complaints in Burlington and South Burlington over the past three months. Taylor also had a pending active arrest warrant for failure to appear in past court proceedings.

Information is preliminary and subject to change.
