NARRATIVE:

Yesterday, on Friday September 16 2022 at approximately 2147 hours, the Burlington Police Department received reports from concerned friends of Ms. Ryann J Collins, 31, stating that she had been missing since earlier that day. Police canvassed known locations and entered the missing person into national search databases. Today, on Saturday September 17 2022 at approximately 1142 hours, information led officers to the North Beach parking lot and eventually Rock Point park. The BPD regrets to inform the public that sometime after noon Ms. Collins was located, deceased, in Rock Point. Neither criminality nor misadventure is currently suspected in this death. The BPD has notified the victim's family members, and we extend to them and to Ms. Collins's loved ones and friends our deepest condolences."

Information is preliminary and subject to change.
