MEDIA RELEASE

INCIDENT TYPE:		DATE/TIME REPORTED:
Arrest, Aggravated Assault		03/27/2023 0120 Hours
INCIDENT NUMBER:		LOCATION:
23BU005266		500 Block of Shelburne Road
INVESTIGATOR:		INVESTIGATOR CONTACT:
Officer Johnson (404)		(802) 540-2143
AUTHOR:		APPROVED BY:
Sarah Hernandez Timm		Chief Murad
SUSPECT:		AGE:	SUSPECT ADDRESS:
Conrad Duncan		43	Burlington, Vermont
SUSPECT DISPOSITION:
The suspect, Conrad Duncan, was arrested for aggravated assault.

NARRATIVE:

On March 25, 2023 at approximately 1805 hours, the Burlington Police Department received a report about a possible stabbing. The caller told dispatch a male had stabbed another male near the intersection of King Street and St. Paul Street.

Responding officers located the victim, who had suffered a head laceration. After providing officers a detailed description of the suspect, the victim was transported to the University of Vermont Medical Center by the Burlington Fire Department. The suspect was identified as Conrad Duncan.

On March 26, 2023, the Burlington Police Department put out a Be On the Lookout (BOL) for Duncan.

On March 27, 2023 at approximately 0120 hours, the Vermont State Police stopped a vehicle near the 500 block of Shelburne Road and advised officers that they believed the passenger to be Conrad Duncan. The Burlington Police Department responded and took Duncan into custody for aggravated assault. Officers recovered a knife and tagged into evidence. Duncan's bail is set at $5,000. Anyone with information about this incident is asked to contact the Burlington Police Department at (802) 658-2704.