NARRATIVE:

On May 30, 2023, at approximately 6:50pm, dispatch from the Burlington Police Department received multiple calls for a report of trespass at Avenue C. At 6:11am earlier the same day, officers responded for an assault at the same location. Probable cause was established to support a charge of aggravated assault. Witnesses stated that after the disturbance, Nguyen assaulted the victim and chased the victim with a crowbar. Hung Nguyen, 51, of Burlington was arrested and released on conditions with a flash citation to appear in court. Conditions included not to have contact with the victims he assaulted and threatened, and to not go within a specific distance of the residence.

When officers arrived on scene, to address the report of trespass, investigation determined Nguyen violated his conditions of release. Nguyen was taken into custody and transported back to the BPD for processing. Nguyen was lodged at Northwest State Correctional Facility and issued a $5,000 bail. He is ordered to appear in court on May 31, 2023.

Nguyen’s criminal history contains two misdemeanor convictions and one failure to appear.

Information is preliminary and subject to change.
