NARRATIVE:

On 12 October 2023, at approximately 1433 hours, the Burlington Police Dispatch Center received multiple 911 calls of a physical altercation between six individuals in which one individual pointed a firearm.

Officers arrived on scene and were advised by witnesses that the group of individuals separated. Officers located the suspects involved in City Hall Park and found them to be juveniles. Officers located the victim and the other individuals that were involved in the physical altercation where a firearm was pointed. Officers received information from an independent witness who identified the two individuals who were in possession of the firearm during the altercation. Officers were able to seize a fanny pack from one of the individuals. Officers searched one of the other juvenile suspects based on information received from witnesses.

The Burlington Police Department would like to thank the University of Vermont Police Services for their assistance.

Three individuals were taken into custody for Aggravated Assault with a deadly weapon, Impeding a Police Officer, and Unlawful Mischief. The Burlington Police will not be releasing the names of the individuals due to their age.

Information is preliminary and subject to change.
