NARRATIVE:

On 01 June 2024, at approximately 0126 hours, the Burlington Police Dispatch Center received a 911 call for a male who threatened to stab a bartender in one of the establishments located on Church St. The caller advised the suspect male had walked away and was in the area of Church St and Main St.

Officers arrived on scene and spoke to witnesses. Other Officers canvassed the area to locate a male matching the description provided by the caller. Officers made contact with the male who provided a false name initially to Officers. This male was later identified as Keshawn Galloway, age 23. While Officers spoke to Galloway, he attempted to flee on foot after being told he was being detained for a criminal investigation. Officers were able to catch Galloway, who ignored Officers orders and resisted arrest. Officers were eventually able to secure Galloway into handcuffs.

Information is preliminary and subject to change.

POLICE DEPARTMENT
CITY OF BURLINGTON

Officers obtained sworn statements from witnesses at the establishment on Church St. The investigation revealed that Galloway had a dispute with a bartender over a mixed alcoholic beverage, where Galloway grabbed the shirt of the bartender in a violent manner. The bartender escorted Galloway outside of the establishment, where Galloway pulled a knife out and threatened to stab the bartender. Galloway advanced towards the bartender who was able to gain control of Galloway's hand that possessed the knife. Other patrons of the establishment observed the bartender attempting to defend himself and assisted with getting Galloway to separate.

Galloway was lodged at Northwest Correctional Facility on the arrest warrant with a bail of $500.00 and received an additional bail of $5000.00 for the new criminal charges.

Anyone with information about this incident is asked to contact the Burlington Police Department at (802) 658-2704.

Information is preliminary and subject to change.
