UPDATE: July 24, 2024

Investigators identified Aziana Holder, 22, of Burlington, to be the alleged shooter in this incident but her whereabouts were unknown.

On July 17, 2024, Holder turned herself in at Court for the January 30, 2024 aggravated assault and reckless endangerment incident. Holder was arraigned and released on conditions.

The Burlington Police Department would like to thank the United States Marshals Service for their assistance with this investigation.

NARRATIVE:

On January 30, 2024, at approximately 6:01am, officers with the Burlington Police Department were dispatched for a report of a vehicle disturbance and apparent gunshots in the area of King Street.

The initial investigation determined that two vehicles hit one another and fled the scene. Ballistic evidence was recovered. No person is currently known to have been struck by gunfire in this incident. This is an ongoing investigation and has been assigned to the Detective Services Bureau.

Anyone with information about this incident is asked to contact the Burlington Police Department at (802) 658-2704.

Information is preliminary and subject to change.
