

POLICE DEPARTMENT
CITY OF BURLINGTON

MEDIA RELEASE

August 5, 2024

On Thursday, August 1, 2024, the Burlington Police Department held a swearing-in and promotions ceremony. We are excited to share we have formally added ten new employees to our department. The event recognized new employees who have joined the BPD since our last ceremony in February, lateral police officers, our new police recruits who will be starting the academy, and an employee who has been promoted.

The four professional employees who recently joined our team include our Crisis, Assessment, Response, Engagement Services (CARES) Supervisor and three Emergency Communications Specialists. The professional promotion belonged to a former Community Support Liaison, who now acts as our Community Support Supervisor. We swore in one of our two lateral police officers, along with our four new police recruits — these probationary police officers have started the Vermont Police Academy and are set to graduate this December. Additional acknowledgments went to our Summer 2024 Beach & Park Patrol Officers.

The recording of the August 2024 Swearing-In and Promotions Ceremony is available on Town Meeting TV at cctv.org.

Information is preliminary and subject to change.
